

Thank you for donating to the third annual UECDH Hygiene Drive for ECO Girls!

As a non-profit supporting New Americans in Erie, many resettled from African countries, our organization is proud to partner with you to get needed personal products to high school students in rural South Africa for ECO Girls, an NGO based in Mahikeng, Northwest Province in South Africa.

Please feel free to add a note of encouragement to these students with your donation!

Thank you for donating to the third annual UECDH Hygiene Drive for ECO Girls!

As a non-profit supporting New Americans in Erie, many resettled from African countries, our organization is proud to partner with you to get needed personal products to high school students in rural South Africa for ECO Girls, an NGO based in Mahikeng, Northwest Province in South Africa.

Please feel free to add a note of encouragement to these students with your donation!

Thank you for donating to the third annual UECDH Hygiene Drive for ECO Girls!

As a non-profit supporting New Americans in Erie, many resettled from African countries, our organization is proud to partner with you to get needed personal products to high school students in rural South Africa for ECO Girls, an NGO based in Mahikeng, Northwest Province in South Africa.

Please feel free to add a note of encouragement to these students with your donation!

Thank you for donating to the third annual UECDH Hygiene Drive for ECO Girls!

As a non-profit supporting New Americans in Erie, many resettled from African countries, our organization is proud to partner with you to get needed personal products to high school students in rural South Africa for ECO Girls, an NGO based in Mahikeng, Northwest Province in South Africa.

Please feel free to add a note of encouragement to these students with your donation!

